

I support XM Radio for supplying very important Traffic And Weather information that I cannot readily get otherwise. Living in Texas it is especially important to get updated information immediately as the storms can pop up without warning such has happened the last 2 nights in the Dallas-Ft. Worht area. i am paying for this information and do not want this taken away by some special interest group that did not have the foresight to have anything similiar.